AUTUMN 1, WEEK 7

Head of School Message

What a fantastic week we've had at Manaccan!

I started the week working with St Anthony Class and our School Council, looking at how we are going to run pupil leader opportunities this year. We've got exciting plans - keep an eye out for our 'Special Edition' School Council newsletter update next week!

In our assembly this week, we shared the background of the Black History Month observance and the importance of recognising the contributions and achievements of people of colour, not just in October, but throughout the year and our curriculum. We learned about and celebrated people such as Nelson Mandela, Maggie Aderin-Pocock, Barack Obama and Michelle Agyemang.

Finally, we had our first PTA event of the year yesterday! What a wonderful way to make the most of the dry autumn weather - enjoying a conker championship and some hot chocolate as a community! A HUGE thank you to our wonderful PTA and all of the volunteers for organising and running the event.

Have a lovely weekend.

Learning of the Week

We could not be more proud of the football team who have headed off to the Cornwall Small Schools' Football Tournament at Nanphysick today. They have shown determination, teamwork and true Manaccan spirit in all of their matches so far. A big thank you to Mr Salway for organising and accompanying the children.
